Congratulations to last year premiers who today officially begin their premiership defense;

- Newcastle City Men's Cup 2018 Premiers
- Newcastle City Women's 2018 Premiers

The Off-Season has been a busy one with several key changes occurring at a league level and at the clubs;

- Bar TV have agreed to be the Media partner for AFL Hunter Central Coast and will broadcast two live streamed games each week of the 2019 AFL Hunter Central Coast season. This will include one AFL HCC Women's game and one AFL HCC Men's Cup game live streamed each week at a minimum.
- The competition structure for 2019 is as follows;
 - Men's Cup 10 teams
 - Women's AFL HCC 15 teams
 - Men's Plate 13 teams
 - AFL HCC Social competition 7 teams (Including the newest club—AFL Hunter Maters)
- Brining the league to 45 teams in 2019.
- The newly formed AFL Hunter Central Coast Board will be Chaired by David Flynn. David is a multiple Premiership winning player at Cardiff and is joined on the new league Board by Ross Hughes, Roy Reichert, Paul Redman, Simon Smyth, Cameron Clark, Ryan Stanton, Brett O'Farrell and Lindsay Guy.
- AFL Hunter Central Coast has appointed Christine Burrows as Head Umpire Coach for 2019. Thanks to Christine for her continued involvement.
- 2019 Season Launch was conducted last weekend at Belmont 16ft Sailing Club, a fantastic day with all clubs in attendance and over 150 people kicking off the 2019 season with a bang!
- AFL Hunter Central Coast have formed a partnership with NCCUA to continue to support and develop the league's umpires. Thanks to Jake Lowe and the NCCUA.
- The 2019 Preseason Women's Gala day was held last Saturday at Lake Macquarie, thanks to entire Dockers team for their effort to support the day. Looking forward to the 2020 event already.
- Educations session's have be run across the region with free ERC and FIRST AID courses on March 17th. Ground Manager and Team Manager training session's are on this Sunday March 31st.

Best of luck to all teams in 2019, looking forward to seeing the action kick off on Saturday as we officially launch the AFL Hunter Central Coast competition.

AFL HCC WOMEN ON THE REPRESENTATIVE STAGE

The Women's regional representative carnival is set to continue in 2019 following its' fantastic debut last season. The concept was developed when the AFLW winter competition was announced and all planned women's league representative matches in 2018 were subsequently cancelled.

The 2018 carnival proved to be a hit and the AFLHCC had no hesitation in continuing the concept this year despite a women's league representative match against South Coast also being on the calendar.

"AFL HCC are excited to offer two representative opportunities during the 2019 season for Women in our competition" Community Football Manager Sam Zikman noted.

Once again teams representing Central Coast, Newcastle and The Hunter will battle it out in a round robin format. Newcastle will be hoping to go back-to-back, though teams were very evenly matched last year.

Killarney Vale's Peter Kelleher who co-coached the inaugural Central Coast regional women's team was excited the concept would continue this year.

"League rep games only reward the top 25 players. The regional representative day gives 75 women a taste of rep football most of which would otherwise not receive the opportunity to play a higher level of football."

"Last year the players particularly enjoyed the opportunity to train together before the carnival. Training and playing when surrounded by better players really helped improve their game when they went back to club football. Ultimately this can only serve to improve women's footy in our region."

The carnival will be held on April 22nd which is Easter Monday, Zikman added the background to this scheduling. "Generally we prefer to keep the Easter weekend free when it comes to local football. However, the match against the South Coast (Men's and Women's) is scheduled for May 18th and it's logical to hold the regional carnival before this so in effect it acts as a selection trial. Provided the Easter Monday date is well received I can see this day becoming one of the biggest on the AFL HCC football calendar."

"The upside is that all focus for the week leading up to the game will be on women's footy as there will be no men's or junior games running parallel." Last year a full men's round was scheduled on the same day as the women's carnival which meant the opportunity for all who would have liked to attend the game was limited. This year personnel including support staff, trainers, commentators and umpires will have their full complement available to help celebrate women's football in our region.

Once again the day will be held at Ferodale Oval which is the home of Port Stephens AFL club. Port Stephens did a marvellous job hosting the carnival last year and it remains a nice touch that a women's carnival is hosted by a senior club which was built upon and remains with only a women's team.

Women's football in our region continues to develop at speeds no one could have imagined 5 years ago. This should be something all supporters of AFL should be very proud of indeed.

To say there is an exciting feeling around our club heading into 2019 is an understatement. The 14 year long wait since we were pushed off our old fortress known as Manela Park, the Hawks now finally have a home and it's a beauty. Pasterfield Sports Complex, Cameron Park will be the home of the Hawks for 2019 and beyond, we look forward to hosting you all there.

Our club would like to welcome all new players, coaches, sponsors and supporters. Our club is focused being an inclusive club that provides a comfortable environment for all to be a part of and we welcome everyone with open arms.

Congratulations to Liam (Gibbo) Gibson who will this weekend reach the impressive milestone of 300 senior games. A four-time premier-ship player, club B&F winner, CAFC team of 50 years player, CAFC life member and many more accolades to list. Gibbo you are an absolute champion mate, well done!

Best of luck to both sides this weekend, we look forward to seeing you all back at The Duke Hotel to recollect on the days play.

Excitement is building for round one to be played at the new ground at Tuggerah. The Lake Macquarie women will be excited to take on Terrigal in the first round and are looking to build on the strong start to the year in last week's Gala day at Teralba. Once again there has been a large turnover of players but the Dockers will looking to the new players to build on the strong spine. Emma Jayne Howe and young gun Brianna Trappett up forward, Holly Kozlik and Sheldon Janissen in the middle and Maddie Klimovitch at the back.

As there is a general bye in the plate completion the boys will need to wait to round 2 at home to pull on the boots.

Round 1 is finally here but it feels like pre-season training only started yesterday, and for a few of the Ressie players it actually did. It has been a big off season of change for the club, under the direction of the new board the club has a feeling of re-invigoration and excitement heading into 2019.

The club had appointed a new look coaching team for 2019 with Truman and Kev playing out their best impression of the odd couple for the Ressies, who will be looking to go one better than last year after missing finals on percentage. Junior taking a promotion after gaining more than his fair share of grey hairs after coaching the Ressies last year, takes the reigns of the women's team who are coming off their most successful season and looking to make a deeper run into the finals. Finally the senior team will be under the tutelage of Benny and Spriggs for the 2019 season and will be looking to bounce back from a tough 2018 campaign.

Not everything is new at Maitland though with the club welcoming back our major partners of 2018; The Bradford Hotel the team's first stop of a Saturday after the game for a feed and a sneaky shandy, Club Maitland City who will be hosting our Beyond Blue Charity Dinner on the 15th June and McDonalds Ruthersford who I'm sure could survive on the patronage of a few of our Ressie players alone. The club also welcomes new partners for the 2019 season in Booth Contracting your one-stop plumbing and drainage solutions provider and East Coast Water Blasters. Along with our sponsors the club welcomes the PhysioStudio at East Maitland to provide the Women and Men's teams with quality support and care for the 2019 season.

Round 1 sees the Women's and Senior Men's team both take on Newcastle City at the new Central Coast Sporting Complex and what better way to test ourselves than against the reigning premiers, both teams will be looking to impress new coaching staff and lay the foundation for a big 2019. The Ressies are on ice for the week and will be ready to go next week.

Good luck to everyone for the 2019 season!

It has been a productive off-season for the Nelson Bay Marlins! There have been some fantastic changes around the club with a lot new faces both on and off the field. The Marlins have a new look committee who are focused on creating a positive culture for all players and supporters. The club has also welcomed a large influx of players to the Premier division side, coached again this year by Sean McGrath. The women's team has a new coach in Dean Purdle and look forward to another successful year. All this points to an exciting outlook for the 2019 season!

This year's season opener will see the club head west to take on the Singleton Roosters at Rose Point Park. The women's team, led by Jessie Jones, will be fired up and eager to reverse the ledger after a narrow defeat by the Roosters late in the 2018 season.

The Premier Division side, led by new skipper Billy Barton, are keen to put their stamp on the 2019 season early. The team has 14 new players taking the field, including five talented players making the transition from junior program. One of the Nelson Bay Marlins most successful junior players, Craig Bird, will also be returning to the fold and looks set to inspire the next generation of young Marlins!

Newcastle City are excited about another big year of local footy in 2019. The 2018 season was very successful for the Club both on and off the field, with Premierships in the Cup and Women's competition and runners up in Plate, a great return for the hard yards put in by all.

The new AFLHCC league has started off very well with communication and collaboration with and between Clubs really pleasing. Whilst the rivalry on the field is always fierce, the support between Clubs who are all in this together is a real feature of football in the region.

Our Cup and Plate teams have prepared strongly during the off season and with the usual comings and goings of players we remain confident of putting in a strong showing again this year. Whilst disappointed that we couldn't field two women's teams this season, we remain optimistic of being able to drive the growth of women's AFL in Newcastle with very strong numbers at junior levels and the opportunity of a divisionalised competition in 2020 seeing us working hard towards the return of two teams next season.

Big thanks to our key supporters the Commonwealth Hotel, BodyWorx Physiotherapy, SAGE Painting, Core Project Group, Darby Street Quality Meats and MARIC Build. Go City!

Round 1 of the 2019 season sees football return to Rose Point Park! Our Black Diamond Cup and Women's teams are in action against Nelson Bay, with our Reserve graders having one extra week to find their boots and make at least one training session before their first game!

While the players have been working hard at pre-season training, the committee have also been busy behind the scenes getting everything sorted for Round 1, as well as making giant leaps towards one of the club's long term goals. Thanks to a generous grant from the NSW Office of Sport, a new electronic scoreboard should be installed and operating well before the end of the season, enhancing what is already a fantastic spectator facility at the Chook Pen.

Mal "Chalky" Draper returns to the club as Women's coach in 2019, and is keen to continue the momentum that has been building in this team over the last few years. There were plenty of good signs for him as he saw the Roosterettes' in match-day action for the first time in the scratch match against Muswellbrook a fortnight ago. This week the ladies come up against arguably the best team of the last few years in Nelson Bay, a team they beat towards the end of last year on their march to a first ever finals campaign. With a host of exciting new talent complementing existing experienced players, the Roosterettes will be confident they can repeat that stunning result.

Andrew 'Chis' Scott returns as Senior men's coach, assisted this year by Alex "Pup" Mitchell who will take the reins of Reserve Grade games. With the Ressies on a bye, and an almost full strength playing list, Chis should be able to put out a very strong side against the Marlins today. Lots of new faces in the men's squad has created a healthy competition for places, a situation that should also drive better Reserve grade results this year.

A massive thanks to all our new and returning sponsors for 2019, headed by our fantastic major sponsor The Criterion Hotel. We thank Damian and his staff for their continuing support this season. Thanks also to Gary Loy at ACS, Andrew at MacPherson Built, Happytooth Singleton, Arrow Heritage Solutions, Flynny at Hunter Valley Glass, Coolmore, Lindy Harris' One Agency, Rachel at Nivek, Ali at Hunter Wide Civil, and Shane and the crew at the Coal Face Magazine.

And a special shout-out to today's matchday sponsor – Singleton Auto Wreckers. Club stalwart Donald Hornby-Waring, better known as Hyph is looking after us today so make sure you get around him and show your thanks. Don't worry about buying him a beer though as he gets them free all day as part of his deal ... perhaps we should have asked for more $$! THANK YOU HYPH AND SINGLETON AUTO WRECKERS.

Enjoy the day everyone and see you back at the Cri at 6pm sharp for pressos. Cock-a-doodle-doo!!

Welcome to round 1 of the new AFLHCC. After a long preseason we finally get underway.

Today at the new Central Coast Regional Sporting Complex in Tuggerah, our Women's team kick-start their season at 11.00am against 2018 Grand Finalists Wyong Lakes, and Tracy Baker's side will be very keen to get to continue the good work over the summer. The resses have a point to prove to the bombers after losing to them in last years final series while in the black Diamond cup it promises to be another close battle between two sides that will be very keen to draw first points for the year.

Straight after the Women's fixture, at 1.30pm, our Black Diamond Cup side has their first AFLHCC game, against 2018 Finalists Wyong Lakes. After a solid pre-season, Marty Reiman's men will be after a solid performance against an experienced and smart Magpie outfit. This game is one of four matches being broadcast by BARTV, so if you can't get to Tuggerah, make sure you follow the action via the Facebook link.

Our Plate side has the week off, and will commence their season at home against 2019 Plate Premiers Terrigal Avoca on Saturday April 6.

All players and supporters should be heading back to the Warners Bay Hotel post match for a meal and some beverages and look after the number 1 pub sponsors in the AFLHCC.

The Warners Bay Bulldogs website, <http://warnersbaybulldogs.com.au/>, has lots of important info and great articles throughout the season.

Good luck to all teams in Round 1; it's great to have footy back for 2019.

Welcome to the 2019 AFL season Magpies fans.

I am going to start with a bit of sad news before a run down on the footy. It was with great sadness that we learnt that Michelle Tos passed away last weekend after a short battle with aggressive cancers. Michelle is the wife of Michael and mother of Brad- yon and Kyra. All associated with the club extend our most heart felt sympathy's and condolences to the Tos family and to all that knew and loved Michelle. A celebration of Michelle's life will be held at Wallarah Bay Recreation Club from 1pm. In lieu of flow- ers the family has requested that anyone wishing to make a do- nation to the Wyong Cancer Care Clinic. A donations box will be available on Monday.

Additionally, we will be holding a minutes silence before Satur- days Cup game at the new Central Coast Regional Sporting Com- plex. All members, supporters and players are invited to join in a club circle of support and reflection just prior to our Cup game.

A long off season with a lot of hard work is about to be tested. Mick Solomons has taken over as our senior men's coach. Mick was thrown in the deep end somewhat having to take over a year earlier that had been planned. He has however fitted in excep- tionally well and this enthusiasm and knowledge is seeing record numbers at training. With a few returning players in the likes of Riley Johnson and Sid Martindale and transfers in in the form of Nathaniel Lander joining the evergreen Chris Koop-Folkes, Tim Hillman and Lee Moore the Cup side is primed for the year.

Likewise our women's team has been working hard on skills and fitness in their drive to go one better this year. Playing numbers have increased and probably most importantly we have many ladies that will hit 50 games this year, all inaugural members of the competition. The club has also been very proud to see our women and their coaching and support staff helping the Gosford ladies out. Both teams trained together on many occasions and proud all possible support to assist Gosford getting a team up. Great to see them working so hard to grow womens footy.

Don't forget next weekend get down to The Don and see the 2 oldest clubs on the Central Coast take on each other. Best of Ground Medals in memory of Rhys McNaughton will be awarded in all grades.

Up the 'Pies.
