WOMEN'S LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE CHALLENGE

Originally published in the Hunter Women's Chronicle

Written by Isaac McIntyre

Newcastle have defended their AFLHCC Women's Representative Challenge title, waving away challenges from the Central Coast and Hunter squads to go back-to-back in the regional tri-series.

Central Coast proved to be the biggest challenger to Newcastle's throne at Ferodale Park on Easter Monday, with the rep squads playing out two major battles across the tournament. Their first clash opened the series, with Newcastle edging their rivals 6.3-39 to 2.6-18.

Lake Macquarie's Emma-Jayne Howe, who has already slotted eight in three for the Dockers in the club comp, bagged a hat-trick for Newcastle to set them on their way to an opening victory. Her three in the first half cancelled out strikes from Morgan Ross and Angela Jones, both of whom put Central Coast back into the lead early.

Molly Simpson, who made the offseason move from minor premiers Nelson Bay to Newcastle City, proved a valuable pickup for the Newcastle rep squad as she pinged two of her own across both halves to put the game beyond doubt. Chiara Lam also scored.

It was a "really good feeling" to claim the second straight tri-series victory on Easter Monday, Newcastle coach Sarah Handley said. Handley, who is taking a year away from playing to "reset", took the reigns of the rep squad in 2019, and believes a relaxed attitude to the rep tournament was the difference-maker for Newcastle.

"We have a solid core group of girls in the team and we really bonded, I think a big difference was how relaxed we were," Handley said after the tri-series win.

"It wouldn't have surprised me if Central Coast had won because they were so dominant, but we just clicked so easily on the field, and everyone had no pressure because we were just having fun."

A second victory awaited Newcastle in their next fixture. Tracey Baker and Carla Hill each scored early to give Newcastle a 13-nil lead. Baker scored again, and was joined on the scoresheet by Howe and Lisa Morales. Hunter scored just once in reply in the second half, eventually falling 5.6-36 to 1.2-8 in the second fixture.

Finally, Central Coast ran rampant over the Hunter representatives to earn their place in the decider. Five goals for sharp-shooter Morgan Ross, as well as a double for Alexandra Pearce, secured the Coast's 11.4-70 to nil victory over the third-placed squad. Megan Jenkins, Angela Jones, and Rebecca Ives all joined the onslaught with one of their own each.

After the 70-point victory, Central Coast began to shape as favourites for the grand final. Added as a way to determine a victor in a fourth game on the Easter Monday, the decider had already shaped to be a strong contest in its opening year.

With the first three games seeing a barrell of goals scored between the three teams, the quiet three-goals-to-nil game proved an armwrestle over a shooting contest.

Howe got Newcastle off the mark in the first face, before Amy Pittman scored to give her side a tenuous 13-3 lead heading into the break. Central Coast just simply couldn't find a major to get back into the contest, and Simpson polished off the 3.2-20 to 0.5-5 win with a six-pointer in the second half.

Although the Dockers' Howe – who Handley believes "doesn't miss" – shone in the forwards for Newcastle, alongside Simpson, the Newcastle mentor believes the squad's "defensive pressure" was a vital element in their big win over the Coast in the final game.

For Handley, her three biggest stars of the day were defenders Rosie Ronan Yates (Newcastle City), Taylah Wilks (Cardiff), and Kate Booth (Wallsend-West Newcastle).

WOMEN'S LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE CHALLENGE

"Our defensive pressure won us both games against the Coast, and my top three were Rosie, Taylah, and Kate absolutely," the Newcastle sideline commander said. Handley Believes defensive pressure won Newcastle their second tri-series title on Easter Monday.

"If you look at their game against the Hunter they scored so many, then in our first game against them its seven goals to two. Even better, in the final they could only get five behinds. I think that really shows where the games were won."

Handley also had nothing but praise for the AFL Hunter Central Coast organisers, and the tri-series format as a whole. For the Newcastle star and coach, who expects to return to the playing field in 2020, more games between Newcastle, Central Coast, and Hunter is "vital" for the region moving forward.

"It's so awesome to see, we have so much talent now that there's fifteen teams after five years ago having like six or eight," she said.

"This tri-series format definitely needs to continue, and I would probably even like to see the three teams playing each other in more games, and more regularly. There's so much talent across the region, I know that just for my team there was like twelve players that nominated that didn't get to play, but fully deserved to be there too."

The Newcastle boss also put her hands to together for the "festival atmosphere" of the Easter Monday event. She specifically praised AFLHCC for the egg hunt organised for the kids while the games were being played.

"The whole day was really, really well done," she said. "Lauren Francis did a wonderful job, and those few extra things have made it into a great day."

Newcastle's leadership group proudly claim the Women's Representative Challenge silverware.

Morgan Ross (Terrigal Avoca) and Emma-Jayne Howe (Lake Macquarie) tied for the competition's top shooting award, finishing the representative carnival on Easter Monday with five goals apiece.

Last week saw some tough matches for our Men's sides with our Cup side going down to well drilled City side. Our Plate side held were competitive for most the match but were not able to convert chances on the half forward line against Lake Macquarie.

The Lady pies continue to be the shining light of the Senior side of the club remaining undefeated, not letting Lake Macquarie hit the scoreboard. With both the Plate and Women's sides competing for the ANZAC shield which was determined on a aggregate score of both games, which saw the Pies retain the shield.

This week our Cup boys have another tough game against Terrigal-Avooca at home with the emphasis focused on competing at every contest, lets hope the boys can find form against the Panthers who are never far from top of the ladder. Our Plate side host Singleton which should be a close and entertaining match with both sides close on the ladder. The Lady Pies also host Singleton who continue to improve each year and round with our girls looking to continue recent good form.

The clubs Ipod shuffle night is fast approaching 11th May to be involved make sure you follow the clubs FB page and follow the event links.

Up the Pies!

Round 5 sees our Cup & Plate sides travel up north to take on Warners Bay, in what will be a crucial match in how our season shapes up for the Cup side. Our Women's side have the bye this week.

Round 4 saw our Cup side defeat Nelson Bay in hard fought match at Adcock Park giving us 3 wins in a row. Poor kicking at goal let both sides down however our defence held strong. In the Women's results we came up against a sharp Newcastle City who were too strong for our young and inexperienced side. Our Plate side also faced a well polished Newcastle City side, with an undermanned side for the Tigers made it a tough game, but they never gave up.

Looking forward to a spirited performance by both the Cup and Plate sides today and wish them all the best.

See you at the Elly.

Go Tiges!

This week we make our long awaited return to No.1 sportsground for our first home game of the season. We get to unfurl the 2018 Black Diamond Cup and Women's competition Premiership flags and warmly welcome our 2019 sponsors and Blues Brothers supporters group.

Some very strong results last weekend with some highlights being 10 goals from Meaghan MacDonald, a really strong debut performance from Jack Woodhams in Black Diamond Cup and 5 goals from Fiji at Gosford, almost eclipsing his efforts down at Adcock Park back in the early 2000's.

Our sponsors luncheon being held today will be a nice way to say thank you and welcome to the 2019 season. Joining us in 2019 will be Major Sponsor the Commonwealth Hotel, long term sponsors BodyWorx Physiotherapy and Darby Street Quality Meats and a bunch of new supporters including Core Project Group, Grainfed Brewing Company, BLOC, D Group, TITAN Cranes, SAGE Painting Service and Tilse Apple House Cider with another big sponsorship announcement imminent.

Best of luck to all those donning the Navy Blue this week, whether on the footy field or the netball courts.

Go City!

We're back on the road this weekend, with the Cup side at Newcastle City and our Women & Plate sides at Wyong Lakes. A big thank you to everyone who came down to Rose Point Park last weekend to help and watch our teams do battle against Maitland. It was a special day for our club as we remembered Bryan Childs four years on. It was great to have your family and friends there mate and we hope we did you proud.

Although it was a fantastic day the results were mixed, with the Cup side our only winners, retaining the Bryan Childs Shield for another year. The Easter/Anzac/Groovin the Moo perfect storm wreaked havoc with both our and Maitland's team sheets, but thanks to some last minute pleas, bribes, guilt trips and schooners both clubs got three teams on the park. Well done to all & congratulations to our three 50-gamers – Dylan Hixon, Conrad Smith and Cameron White.

Our Ressies will be attempting to open their 2019 account against a Magpies side who have managed one win this year. The Roosters' game against Maitland was close enough until three quarter time, but four unanswered last quarter goals to the Saints saw them emerge victorious. Klint Williams was again amongst the best, with nice cameos from the evergreen Mark Roser and former Cup umpire Ashley Borg, who somehow managed to get through the game unscathed! We'll need all hands on deck this week in what promises to be another tough encounter.

Our Black Diamond Cup side got back to winning ways with an emphatic 10 goal win over the Saints. There was plenty to be impressed about, with Cam White bagging three goals in a BoG performance in his 50th. Born again forward Welshy kicked another 3, and we welcomed Elmo back for his first run this year. Pete Childs gave his plaudits to Sammy Howard, a good friend of Bryan's who played the game with pride and spirit. The boys take on an unbeaten City side today potentially without key playmaker and coach Andrew Scott. Doona was due to give birth to their first child on Anzac Day so we all understand if more important priorities prevail this weekend!

After coming away on the wrong side of a 12-goal result against the undefeated Maitland last week, the Roosterettes' challenges continue this week away to the also undefeated Wyong Lakes. The ladies had a tough day at the office against the Saints, however the scoreboard did not tell the full story of their efforts. Defenders Hayley Richards, Kyah McBride and Dalys Jacobsen played strong games, and Bianca Morris, in her first year, continued to show great promise.

And a special shout-out to today's matchday sponsor – @theCoalFace Magazine. Thank you to Shane and his team for their support of the club this year and the publicity through the paper.

THANK YOU SHANE AND @THECOALFACE MAGAZINE
 Enjoy the day everyone and see you back at the Cri at 7pm sharp for pressos. Damo's got a stack of drink and meal specials for you to enjoy.

Cock-a-doodle-doo!!

Two wins and a loss was a better return for the Saints as we took on Singleton in the Bryan Childs Memorial Derby between the two clubs.

The Resses were terrific first up, although a little inaccurate in front of goal, but their use of the tempo footy we have been working hard on at training was something to behold. Such large footy brains combined with exemplary skills and a modicum of fitness saw the Resses run out comfortable winners.

The Ladies continued on their winning ways despite fielding only 15 players and having a few debutants as well. Lou O'Donohue was outstanding through the centre and was well supported by Kayla Moke on her return to the team. A shout out to Burnsy who played on one leg to ensure we had the numbers but it was a terrific and very convincing win against an undefeated side.

The Ones got off to a slow start once again and didn't really use a pretty talented forward line too well through the day. Our backs were terrific but under siege at times and turnovers continued to hurt us but the effort was there against a physically bigger side and we took out the last quarter in good fashion. It's something to build on but we will benefit most from continuing to get on the track and working together as a whole club.

This week we are back at Max for our first home games of the season. The work that has gone into improving the surface and size is just brilliant and it will be nice to finally get the chance to show it off. Let's get around each other and enjoy a good day at the footy and then get back to the Bradford Hotel with our sponsors from Booth Contracting and East Coast Water Blasters for our awards and a few shandies together.

Last Saturday wasn't kind to the Bombers. Our Mortgage Choice Women won by forfeit but had a strong training session in lieu of the game. The Fox Group Reserves came up against reigning premiers Terrigal-Avoca and despite being undermanned put in a impressive performance with a never say die attitude. But the strength of the panthers prevailed. Our best performers for the day were Rob Zahra, Greg Rolfe and Paul Blain.

First Grade also ended up going down to a clinical Panthers team. We were in the game up until half time but with some key outs we ultimately fell short. Best performers for the day were Jayden Banfield, Josh Mifsud and Kyall Walford.

Today we look to get back on the winners board with some key players returning. First Grade make to trip to Maitland, Whilst Reserves and the Women's will take on City at the picturesque No.1 Sportground.

We'd also like to thank our sponsors below for coming on board in 2019, your support and generosity and greatly appreciated.

On Saturday the 27th of May the Marlins made the trip down to Gosford for round four to take on the Tigers. After a slow start the Marlins came back firing in the second half outscoring the Tigers however this was not enough to take the game. Despite the loss, Brad Stummer, in his debut for the club, provided a handy target up front with strong contested marking. Chase Morrissey returned to form kicking three goals in the second half and has the Marlins excited about his future.

Marlins Magic Moment of the week.....The competition was vigorous in the final quarter when Gordon Young took a run down the middle of the ground, launched a long bomb into the goal square and Tim Anderson collected, pirouetted on a dime and slotted a much needed goal for the Marlins!!

Round five on Saturday 3rd of May will see both teams at home at Dick Burwell Oval with the Women's team playing against Terrigal Avoca and the Premier side taking on Cardiff. Go Marlins!

Upcoming Event.....Pink Sports Day!!
 On Saturday May 11th the Nelson Bay Marlins will again hold a Pink Sports Day in support of local breast cancer survivors and Breast Cancer Network Australia (BCNA). The club encourages all supporters to attend the day, games starting at 12pm!

Cardiff AFC would like to thank the Cardiff RSL Sub Branch for their contribution to our special ANZAC Day Match. We would also like to thank Warners Bay AFC and AFL Hunter Central Coast for making the day happen. The largest crowd our club has ever seen at a home and away fixture witnessed three highly competitive games of footy throughout the day. Credit to all players on the spirit in which the games were played.

Proudly Cardiff Black Diamond Cup side retained the ANZAC Day Trophy for another year. Our ladies performed extremely well running out winners over the always tough Warners Bay outfit and our Reserves put the foot down in the second half to overcome the challenge of the Bulldogs.

Congratulations:
 ANZAC Day Medalist - Bryce Graetz
 Ladies Coaches Best - Hayley Wright
 Reserves Coaches Best - Tim Keys

This week we look forward to the challenge of being on the road across all grades.

Our next home game:
 Saturday 24th May - Cardiff V Newcastle City - Old Boys Day

This week sees the lake Macquarie Dockers take on Maitland Away. The ladies who struggled last week against Wyong have a big task taking on the high flying Maitland team. Hopefully Emma –Jane will be back to her best and kick a bagful.

Both plate teams will be pumped after recording their first wins last week. Saying that Dockers coach Tom Croft will be quietly confident against Maitland after his team kicked eleven goals last week in the Wyong game. Joel Janissen wound back the clock kicking three along with Dylan Rumble who also got three. Jakson Bertoli playing his first game for the season against Wyong was dynamic bursting through the middle.

Another great weekend with Senior Women's winning two games in a row. Last weekend saw our ladies defeat The Entrance Bateau Bay, in a big percentage win, again in the triple figures. Amy again top scored with 7 goals. Well done team a fantastic effort. Best on field included Kate Booth, Melany Fisher, Alyce McCloskey, Bec Garside, Amy Pittman and Bridie Simpson. However, our men were not so victorious against an in form The Entrance Bateau Bay. Despite putting in 4 solid quarters, the lack of a few younger team mates (Groovin' in the Moo again!!!) showed and the lads went down without any majors. With the team back together again next week let's hope we can see some winning football again. Best on field for the men included Henry Gore, Jackson Tisdell, Gareth Salkield, James Bailey, Luke Tweedie and Blayke Carpenter.

As always, a big thanks to our sponsors: The Family Hotel, McDonalds (Wallsend) and Bodyworx. Remember players, families and supporters to get down to The Family Hotel after games and training to support them... without them we wouldn't have our teams.

Muswellbrook AFC vs. Wallsend West Newcastle Pride Round
 On Saturday 4 May 2019, Wallsend West Newcastle ARFC will celebrate Muswellbrook AFC Pride Round at Weereman Field in Muswellbrook. Ashlea Finn, a former player with the Muswellbrook Cats (now a Swan), has previously helped organise a Pride round with Rainbow Jerseys in 2018; and 2019 she has done it again (but bigger with the Swans). The Pride Round is about celebrating diversity and inclusion in sport and the fight against discrimination and homophobia.

Ashley passionately notes:
'Every person that is part of our club the mighty swans brings their own strengths and contributes something valuable to their team and ultimately to the rise of the SWANS!!...Diversity encompasses everything and everyone one!! Which means gender, cultural background, sexuality, what origin team you go for (GO THE BLUES!!) and anything that makes you great!! Inclusion is about accepting that everyone is different and accepting them for who they are'.

The rise of support for women playing AFL is a perfect example of how important diversity and inclusion really is to our community. And this wave is engulfing AFL in the Hunter with the strong growth of Women and Youth Girls football at all levels. The Wallsend West Newcastle Swans are very proud of Ashlea's initiative and welcome our involvement. The Swans prides itself as a strong family and community club, promoting inclusion at all levels, whether it is sexually, religious or cultural. The Swans see diversity in sport as the future growth area for our club and as such strongly support the Pride Cup and its meaning. Both Clubs have commissioned Pride Jerseys for the day; and the rainbow theme (as per National AFL) will be prominent on the day, with all our players and supporters.
