WEEK 1 FINALS PREVIEW

Semi-Final weekend in the AFLHCC sees the Maitland & Muswellbrook footy clubs hosting games in a big weekend for two of our Hunter Valley Clubs.

CUP PREVIEWS:

Killarney Vale versus Singleton, 2.15pm, Weeraman Field, Muswellbrook;

Singleton are one of the form teams in the League over the last eight weeks, and head into this 4 v 5 Semi-Final against the Bombers on the back of a thorough dismantling of a shell-shocked Newcastle City outfit last week.?

Killarney Vale were solid in going down to Minor Premiers Terrigal Avoca last week without key forward Scott Reed.

This game will be an absolute cracker. This is clearly the best Singleton team in a generation, playing committed, passionate, hard and skilful football under coach Andrew Scott.

Killarney Vale's choice of match-up on gun Rooster forward Sam Brasington will be pivotal, and do Corey Shackleton and Brendan Lewis follow the path of other clubs in tagging the Superb and influential Scott. Alex Mitchell and Daine Cowburn are dangerous up front for Singleton and Will Bradshaw is one of the form backmen in the competition.

Singleton have their own massive challenges with several key Bombers stars. 2018 Elliott Davey Medallist Tim Oosterhoff presents huge match-up issues for Scott, as he will swing forward throughout the game in rotation with Jayden Banfield.

Singleton don't have anyone tall enough to cover Oosterhoff one on one inside the 50m arc, so a combination of players including ruckman Zachery Thompson dropping into the hole in front of full-forward may be used to thwart the man affectionately known as "Rooster". Oosterhoff and Reed playing out of the square together would be a complete handful for Singleton.

This game will be won and lost in the Centre, with Killarney Vale's Josh Mifsud and Scott absolutely pivotal to the result. This honestly has the potential to be a one kick result, so closely matched are the two teams.

Cardiff versus Warners Bay, 2.15pm, Max McMahon Oval (BARTV game)

The first year of the AFLHCC has brought up some great Finals match-ups in Week 1, but make no mistake, these two sides playing each other in the Finals just has "epic" written all over it.

The fierce local rivals and near-neighbors going at it, on neutral ground, with a great history added to in recent weeks seasons with their Annual Anzac Day clash, and with a potentially huge crowd at the Max McMahon Amphitheatre, in a sudden-death, no holds barred semi-final? You couldn't ask for more.

Cardiff has quietly gone about its business since being defeated at Rose Point Park a few weeks ago. Coach Nick Tomlinson has two of the League's best forwards in Izaak Hughes and Jack Lennon at his disposal and whom Marty Reiman elects to play on these two pacey, medium-sized forwards will be crucial to the result of this match.

Quality on-ballers Simon O'Brien and Marcus DeLeur will be very influential at the clearances, especially linking with the brilliant Tomlinson running off half-back. O'Brien may have some company during the match, in a bid to curb his speed and quickness around the the spacious confines at Rutherford.

Warners Bay have had a satisfactory home and away season, and defeated Singleton recently in their most important game of the season.

Corey Deverell has made the huge step up to becoming an elite midfielder this season and his battle with O'Brien, alongside returning rover Matt Spinks, will be a beauty.

WEEK 1 FINALS PREVIEW

Deverell's older brother Lachlan may end up on either Lennon or Hughes during the game, a huge role for one of the Bulldogs great leaders. Jake Roach will rotate through the middle and at full-forward, his expected physical battle with DeLeur being a potential match highlight.

One area that was surely addressed during the week at Feighan Oval is the Bulldogs goalkicking, which has been just short of diabolical in recent weeks. Kayne Gibbs and the Roach brothers, along with Spinks when he jets forward, simply must kick accurately if the Bulldogs are to be a chance.

This game, between these two long-term and genuine rivals, could seriously have ANYTHING in it, from a bruising first quarter to rugged personal battles and electrifying football as well.

WOMENS:

Wyang Lakes versus Cardiff, 12 noon, Max McMahon Oval, Rutherford (BARTV game)

2018 Grand Finalists Wyong Lakes will enter this game as firm favourites against Cardiff, who have improved out of sight this year to be deserving of a Top 6 berth.

The expected return of dynamic ruck Kanessa Murray, alongside regular stars Emily Bohan, Sarah Ball, Rachael Potts and Rebecca Ives, will be massive challenge for Cardiff leaders Sheree Vukovich, League representative star Taylor Wilks, Claudia Russell and Tayla

This game could be a bruising and low-scoring battle, with the Magpies capable of stifling defence led by Bohan and Ball, and Cardiff having the leadership of the supremely fit Vukovich and the long kicking of the talismanic Wilks to fall back on under pressure.

Newcastle City versus Terrigal Avoca, 12 noon, Weeraman Field, Muswellbrook

A classic match up between perennial Grand Finalists (City) and the rapidly up and coming (Terrigal Avoca), this is perhaps the closest game of the weekend.

City rested Molly Simpson and Meaghan MacDonald last week, giving star Sarah Halvorsen some time on the ball, a frightening prospect for the Panthers on-ballers if Halvorsen receives clearances from veteran ruck Kirsty Ferguson, MacDonald and Simpson.

The Panthers have created a very consistent outfit from 1-22, with backline leader Lillias Gardner, rover Cathrine Grimmond-Lee, ruck Kirstie Hutton, Emily Bryant and gun forward Morgan Ross all needing big games in a bid to upset the reigning premiers.

PLATE:

Killarney Vale versus Warners Bay, 9.45am, Max McMahon Oval, Rutherford (BARTV game)

This fixture sees Killarney Vale coach and long-time Warners Bay stalwart James Newburn "reach the promised land" in playing his 300th game of football in our region.

These two sides are so evenly matched with experienced talent that the result could go down to the last kick off the game, as it did a few weeks ago when Killarney Vale won the game with the last kick of the match.

The Entrance Bateau Bay versus Muswellbrook, 9.45am, Weeraman Field, Muswellbrook

Muswellbrook, who have had a disjointed year, finished their game last week like a loaded freight train, losing by a solitary point to fellow Finalists Warners Bay.

These two clubs, at exact opposite geographical ends of the League, have a great recent rivalry including a Grand Final and breathtaking semi-final in 2016. TEBB will have no fears travelling to the Upper Hunter but the Cats just love playing at Weeraman Field, with a healthy local crowd cheering them on in what is yet another superb match-up in Week 1 of the AFLHCC Finals Series.

We wrapped up our 2019 home and away season with three solid wins last Saturday at The Nest. Each of the wins, whilst not having much bearing on the finals, was hard fought and played in the right spirit so we would like to thank Lake Macquarie and Wyong Lakes for the great footy they displayed in all grades. The club would like to acknowledge the efforts of all of our Players, Coaches, Managers, Support staff, Canteen, and Bar Staff for such a great team effort in what was a learning year at the NEW Nest. To all of our Sponsors, we are so grateful for your ongoing support of the club and our players and we could not have done it without you.

Everyone's commitment and enthusiasm was amazing and we are already looking forward to 2020 and the new season. Thank you and we look forward to celebrating the 2019 season together at the Cardiff Hawks Best & Fairest Night on Saturday 14th September. Our Women & Cup teams play Semi Finals today at Max McMahon Oval, Maitland, against Wyong and Warners Bay respectively in what should be great games of footy. We hope that all of our Hawks supporters will be there to support the teams as they play back to back finals with the aim of moving into Preliminary Finals next week. Wear your maroon and gold scarves, beanies, jackets and polos to show the Hawks colours and support the teams

If you are around Cameron Park tomorrow we would love to see you call in and support our U13 (11.40am) and U15 boys (1pm) in their finals at Pasterfield Oval. The juniors have already done amazingly well in last weeks finals, with teams already through to the Grand Final, so we wish them well tomorrow.

Congratulations to Steven Taylor on winning our 2019 Membership Prize of a signed 2019 Sydney Swans Jersey.

Finals Football is finally here!

We've been lucky enough to have all 3 Senior Teams in the finals for the second year running. It's a massive achievement and congratulations to all that have made it possible.

Our Women's team have earned a week off after finishing with the minor premiership after a hard fought win over Maitland.

Our Plate Side travel to Maitland to take on Warners Bay which will be a cracking game.

The Cup team travel to unfamiliar territory in Muswellbrook to battle Singleton, and will look to reverse the result of our last outing against them.

Next week we host a Preliminary Final at Adelaide St which will be a huge day of football. We welcome all to come down and enjoy the comfort of the Hangar! We've just installed a new Bar system with plenty of beverage options for people to enjoy

We'd also like to thank our sponsors below for coming on board in 2019, your support and generosity and greatly appreciated.

Newcastle City Womens side will be flying the flag for the Navy Blues this week in an Elimination Final against Ter-rigal-Avoca up at Muswellbrook. The teams have faced off twice already this season with each side recording a win. The womens side have been putting in the hard yards on the track with their skills, ball movement and contested footy work a real feature.

Coach Clarkey is looking for the team to defend the Premiership strongly so expect a good showing from side on Saturday.

Our other ladies in navy over at the netball courts both have finals this Saturday with the winner to advance to the Grand Final on the 7th September. The navy blues have 5 live chances of success on the 7th September, something we all working hard to achieve.

Best of luck to all sides competing in the finals. Go City!

SINGLETON ROOSTERS

Women's Coach: Nadene McBride
Colours: Red & White
Facebook: Singleton Roosters AFC

The Singleton Roosters made history at Rose Point Park on Saturday when celebrating an upset 12.14 (86) to 6.3 (39) victory over AFL Hunter Central Coast powerhouse Newcastle City.

Wayward kicking would keep the visitors in the game at the first break after the Roosters were limited to an early 2.7 (19) with single goals to first year recruit James Colmer and Sam Howard.

Andrew Scott's men never looked back after a dominant second term.

Admittedly, Newcastle City was missing a host of key contributors (including Cameron Keast and Reed Van Huisstede) from their 159-point win over Singleton in Round 5.

Nevertheless the Roosters would also be without Zach Bray, Jacob Welsh, Simione Corfe and Conrad Smith; in what would be their first win over the opposition in the region's top tier competition since the 1990s.

Veteran Andrew Macpherson would land the game's final major.

He, along with current teammates Sam Brasington, Daine Cowburn and Richard Wilkes, would then gather with members of their 2009 premierships winning line-up to commemorate the side's 10-year reunion.

The Roosters finish the home and away season fifth on the ladder with a 10-8 record and today face off against Killarney Vale at Weeraman Field, Muswellbrook (2.15pm start) in a knock-out semi-final.

Hi Footy Fans, last Saturday was the finish to the home & away rounds for the 2019 season. The Bastin Transport supported women had a local derby against Terrigal Avoca & despite us being down on players our girls had a red hot go. Our entire playing squad have committed to coming back next year which is very pleasing for Coach Reed & he can continue building for the years to come.

Our best players were Trunky, Ocean, Jimmy, Bricky, Rhi & "Newgirl" Newman.

The Australian Steel Framing supported men's team had a bus trip up to Maitland & came away with a good win. With finals coming up our team is getting close to full strength which will give coach Beeka a few headaches. Old Cully wound back the clock to be best on ground followed by Dizzy, KP, OBI, Shirley & Captain Besley.

It was great to see a big crowd back at The Leagues Club last Saturday to celebrate the season end. Good luck to all teams playing today but most importantly good luck to our men's team who play against old rivals Muswellbrook in the elimination final today.

A big thanks to our sponsors for their support

WARNERS BAY BULLDOGS

Senior Coach: Marty Reiman
Women's Coach: Tracy Baker
Colours: Red, White & Blue
Facebook: WarnersBayAustralianFootballClub

Warners Bay Footy Club makes the short journey to Max McMahon Oval in Rutherford today, with both the Plate & Cup sides proudly representing our proud tradition, supporters, sponsors, families and our wonderful Old Boys network as we tussle with Jimmy Newburn's Killarney Vale in the Plate and then the Cup semi-final that just makes our mouth water (and will hopefully draw a huge and vocal crowd to the Max McMahon Oval Amphitheatre); Warners Bay vs Cardiff, the two arch rivals getting it on, it doesn't get any bigger for us Doggies.

In the Plate from 9.45am, Jeremy Buckley's side, fresh from an impressive one-point away win at Muswellbrook last week, faces up to a vastly experienced Killarney Vale outfit. Both teams finished with impressive 11-5 records across the Home & Away season and this game should be an absolute belter. Bucks has had some interesting selection dilemmas, with a very talented squad to choose from and a couple of players dropping back for the Cup. The two teams are very closely matched and our Doggies must be at their very best to proceed to the Preliminary Final against either City or the Panthers.

This should be a great game, broadcast live from 9.40am on BARTV, with Lucas Holmes in commentary. We wish KV Coach James Newburn all the best as he joins an elite club: 300 games in our League. Put simply, our Cup side is due to have a breakout performance against Cardiff, who have been very consistent over the past three seasons. This game presents a wonderful challenge for our lads, who will be close to full strength, save for some notable injuries to Isaiah Olsen and in-form backman Ryan Sorensen. Having played at the Rutherford Amphitheatre just seven days ago, our lads know that the breeze can seriously howl there and that goalkicking accuracy is at an all-time premium. The wide-open expanses at Rutherford really are neutral to both sides, who play their home games at two of the bigger grounds in the League.

Look for a big and intense first quarter from all 44 players, trying to set a platform for good football later on. A hard and long season comes down to 2 and half hours work today. The reward of a successful day's work today, against a tough and talented opponent, would be a repeat of last year's Preliminary Final; Terrigal Avoca at Adelaide St Oval. This game will also be on BARTV from 2:10pm, with Chief Commentator Lucas James Holmes on the mike.

Good luck Doggies!! And make sure you head back to the Warners Bay Hotel after play.

Hi Pies,

The last of the home and away season turned out to be huge for the club with retirements and new silverware to play for. The Plate who struggled to get numbers the last part of the year came together to face the swans at Maryland's as part of the pride cup started the game strong with the first few goals with a favourable wind unfortunately the match then swung the swans way and were able to take the first ever men's pride cup trophy. The Lady pies along with their opponents really embraced the togetherness of what the pride cup represents after the match in which the girls were dominant for the first half before the swans were able to string a few consecutive goals, before the lady pies took control to claim the first ever women's pride cup. The Cup boys were just a short drive away facing Cardiff. The Cardiff boys started strong dominating the first quarter.

The boys came out after the break and made a great contest of the game winning each of the remaining quarters but not enough to take the lead going down with a respectable effort in the last few rounds hopefully next year will be more promising. The last game of year was also the last ever for two retiring club greats in Adam Tasker and Tim Hillman, both served the club well and greatly indebted for their achievements on and off the field.

The Lady pies are the last team standing in week 1 of finals facing Cardiff after a tight and fierce contest when they last played, nothing much else is expected and should be a ripper of a game. Everyone at the club is behind you and wish you all the best.

Hi footy fans,

Welcome to the first week of finals in the AFLHCC Seniors.

Congratulations to all teams and clubs represented this week and good luck.

From an umpiring perspective the NCCUA would like to congratulate every umpire that has been lucky enough to gain a finals appointment this week.

Congratulations also to everyone that was involved in the junior finals last week and was lucky enough to gain an appointment in the second week of junior finals.

Congratulations to the following umpires on achieving milestones this weekend in the final Hime and Away round:

Miles Mccauley becomes the 17th Boundary Umpire to reach 50 matches in his discipline. He has umpired 35 Black Diamond Cup matches as part of this milestone. Well Done Miles!

Zali Mertens becomes the 7th female umpire to make her Black Diamond Cup Debut as a Field Umpire this weekend. At such a young age, this is a remarkable achievement! Zali was awarded the 2018 Hunter Juniors Golden Whistle. All the very best for what hopefully will be the first of many games at this level!

Have a great weekend at the footy

PRIDE ROUND WRAP UP

I couldn't be more prouder of my Club... what a fantastic and successful day the Pride Cup was at Bill Elliott Oval on Saturday August 17th – the club truly promoted equality, diversity and inclusiveness to our community. WELL DONE ALL!!!

Yes at long last the Wallsend West Newcastle and Wyong Lakes inaugural Pride Cup, a first for Regional NSW, took place on Saturday 17 August at Bill Elliott Oval at Marland (in the western part of Newcastle LGA), and it turned out to be one of the big highlights of the season. Bill Elliott has never looked so colourful, with all the colours of the rainbow shining across the ground. The Pride Round is about celebrating diversity and inclusion in sport and the fight against discrimination and homophobia, and these values were clearly on display by both Clubs who strongly supported the Pride Cup initiative. Not only were both Clubs well represented by their supporters, there were many supporters of Newcastle Pride and AFL present on the day. In fact, in my time with the Club (close to 10 years) I can't remember a day with more people – so thank you to all that supported the day. And remember to travel down the M1 next year for Wyong's turn to host the event.

The day was opened by Sonia Hornery, the local State Member for Wallsend and a great supporter of the Wallsend Swans; and at the strike of 12pm the women kicked off. And it was on.... straight from the start and despite being a number of places below Wyong on the ladder, our Swans were here to play and to play hard footy. They took it right up to the Magpies in the first part of the match and really persisted. However, the Magpies skills and experience did shine through and they roared ahead to a 60 point plus break at the end of the first half. However, our ladies summoned up some strength during the mid-break and powered through the third quarter winning it two goals to one, with Nicola and Abbey both scoring majors. In the end the Magpies did take home the inaugural trophy, but our ladies put on a valiant display, particularly in the second half where they completely slowed down Wyong's game and almost won the half. Well done ladies for a great, entertaining game. Best on ground were: Abbey Main, Kate Booth, Amy Pittman, Ashlea Finn, Meghan Sawkins and Prue McDonald.

At the break between the matches, the Newcastle University Cheerleaders put on a display, showing the crowd what to expect in their upcoming National championship in Melbourne; then at 2pm the men teams started their clash. From the start our lads were here to play country footy and take home that inaugural trophy. The Swans led at every break during the game, despite a strong third quarter by Wyong Magpies. However, the Swans eight goal haul in the first half set our team up for the inaugural win. In the end the Swans kicked 11 goals to Wyong's five, and they could have had more given another 19 wayward shots at goal that only returned a minor score. For me, this was the Swans best game and hardest played in 2019... a great game of footy. Best on field were: Jackson Tidwell, Mark Lim, Kaeden Hudson, Murray Younger, Hayden Spark and Aiden Bartley.

All in all a great success for both Clubs, with a trophy a piece, and the message of diversity in sport well and truly promoted to our community. However the day would not have gone ahead without a few thankyou's, so Wallsend West Newcastle would like to thank the following: (i) our sponsors for the day, The Family Hotel, Newcastle Pride, Highlite Fitness and Central Coast Pride; and especially Ivan Skaines from Newcastle Pride who was pivotal in getting the day up, and Kara Montoneri from Pride Cup who helped promote the event nationally; (ii) The Wallsend Swans Pride Committee – Darren Bird, Kate Booth, Micheal Livesey and especially Indigo Ryan who helped non-stop and at times single handily chased things up (in fact the day wouldn't have happened without her); (iii) Allison and Grace Hamilton, and Kean Jeffs for their efforts in the canteen, undertaking raffles and selling merchandise etc.; (iv) Sarah Parker (and her cohort of university pals) for doing a fantastic job with the Pride video, liaising with the local print and radio media, and doing the photos on the day (along with our junior mum's Tara Hawley and Carmel Trotter); (v) to all our women and men players / supporters for promoting the day (incl. the big effort at the Wallsend Fair); (vi) Ashlea Finn for first suggesting the day, designing the unique Pride jerseys and sowing the seed to a great event – your vision shone thru; (vii) Sonia Hornery (State Member for Wallsend) for officially opening the day; and Cr. Emma White for her support on the day; (viii) the AFL NSW / ACT staff at Morrissett for their support; the Sydney Swans for donating merchandise (and Isaac Heeney personal video about the event); and (iv) finally, the Wyong Lakes AFC and their Resident Simon Wood for supporting the day, coming along on the journey and taking the mantle for 2020. Hopefully I have not missed anyone... if I have I apologise and thanks for the help.
