557 GAMES BETWEEN THEM – MARK AND JARRAD MCVEIGH

The Daniher brothers amassed a total of 752 games between them as well as a host of honours and awards but another NSW pairing, the McVeigh brothers, Mark and Jarrad, have high distinctions in the AFL are graduating from the Killarney Vale Academy.

Australian Football celebrates its 140th anniversary in New South Wales this year after the founding of the NSW Football Association in Sydney in 1880.

To commemorate, 140 coaches, players, umpires, administrators and media personalities from both the Elite (VFL/AFL) and Community level will be inducted into the inaugural New South Wales Australian Football Hall of Fame. Neil Cordy profiles the nominees this time with brothers, Mark and Jarrad McVeigh

Long before the Swans and GIANTS Academies started developing NSW talent there was a prototype set up on the Central Coast by Tony McVeigh which set a standard for others to follow and produced a success rate almost impossible to compete with.

It's two graduates, his two sons Mark and Jarrad McVeigh played 557 games between them.

Mark played 232 for Essendon between 1999 and 2012 and Jarrad played 325 for Sydney between 2004 and 2019. Only Justin and Simon Madden (710 games), Peter and Shaun Burgoyne (616 games) and Ian and Bruce Nankervis (578 games) have done better for pairings of brothers in the history of the game.

Tony's set up was rudimentary with gum trees for goal posts and an overturned trampoline for rebounding ground balls. But his Killarney Vale Academy has a strike rate for producing AFL talent none have been able to match- 100 per cent.

"We played games against each other and trained every single night," Jarrad McVeigh said.

"We'd play footy in the morning and come home and watch the only televised match on a Saturday. We'd be back outside kicking the footy at half-time. We were always competing, who could take the best mark, who could kick the best goal, it was a daily occurrence. I was lucky to have a brother playing footy because there weren't many on the Central Coast at that time. I was six when we started doing that."

The four year age difference between Mark and Jarrad didn't seem to matter, Jarrad was a fast learner. "I was lucky Jarrad was as good as he was," Mark said. "We would go at it for hours and hours. Jarrad's skill level was amazing for such a young kid."

Their dad Tony was a talented sportsman in his own right, representing Victoria in badminton and squash and playing 45 games for Williamstown in the VFA between 1978 and 1981. In 1982 he, his wife Margaret (a former Victorian netball representative) and Mark moved to the NSW Central Coast where he took up the coaching job at Killarney Vale, then in the Central Coast league.

Tony coached the Killarney Vale Bombers to a premiership in his first season in 1982 and to runner-up the following season to Gosford. He captained the club to another flag in 1987.

Jarrad was born in 1985 and it didn't take long to see the boys had sporting ability and needed some space to develop and grow.

"I cleared the scrub so they could run around and we had a pool so we did triathlons together," Tony said. "We'd run around the house, jump in the pool, do two laps and then rode pushbikes down the driveway. The skills were the main thing because they were naturally fit. I showed them how to handball, kick, baulk and mark."

The trampoline was an innovation; I painted a bullseye on it and laid it on its side. When the ball hit it, it bounced back on the ground and they would run in and pick it up and dispose of it. Mark was more aerial and Jarrad had great ground skills. They would spend hours out there and I would watch them from the house."

While the Killarney Vale Academy and junior footy club gave Mark and Jarrad a great start the move to Pennant Hills took them to another level with their football.

557 GAMES BETWEEN THEM — MARK AND JARRAD MCVEIGH

“We left Killarney Vale to get more exposure to better players and more opportunities,” Mark said. “I was 13 years old and it was a good move. Pennant Hills was a really strong club and that’s where I met Lenny Hayes. It was disappointing for a lot of people on the coast and there was resentment towards us but dad is pretty strong.”

For those who know the McVeigh family well it wasn’t hard to see where Tony got his strength from. Tony’s father, Mark and Jarrad’s grandfather, Jimmy McVeigh was a merchant seaman born and bred in Liverpool, England. He was a gunner in the Merchant Navy during the Second World War.

“The Germans hunted the supply ships down so he saw plenty of action,” Tony said.

“He travelled to Australia a number of times and fell in love with the place. When the war ended he said to mum this is where I want us to live. There were already four boys in the family when we made the trip including me. I was two, my oldest brother Jimmy was 15, Terry was 13 and Peter was one.”

The McVeigh’s ended up in Williamstown in Victoria and had another four children including an only daughter Colleen. She was Jimmy’s favourite and became a champion lacrosse player for Australia participating in four world championships and captaining the team. Colleen married Western Bulldogs player Mark Hunter. Their son Lachie Hunter played against Jarrad McVeigh in the 2016 grand final.

Playing on opposite sides seems to be the family norm, the four year age difference meant Mark and Jarrad never played in the same team throughout their junior days. They were opposed each other throughout their AFL careers with Mark and Jarrad staying one-team players throughout their time at the Bombers and Swans respectively.

The closest they came to joining forces was in 2004 when Paul Roos was keen on bringing Mark to the Swans. “It was close to happening but Essendon were a big club and I wanted to stay a one team player,” Mark said. Mark missed the 2000 premiership team but played in the losing grand final the following year against Brisbane. Over the following years he became a key member of the Bombers line up and leadership group. He represented Australia in the International Rules Series in Ireland in 2004. In 2008 he finished in the top 20 in the Brownlow after missing eight games through injury polling 13 votes.

In his 17 seasons at the Swans Jarrad established himself as one of the club’s greats, he was captain from 2011 to 2016 winning two Bob Skilton Medals (2008, 2013) and All Australian honours in 2013. The highlight came in 2012 when he led Sydney to an epic grand final win over Hawthorn.

Over the span of their careers the brothers lined up against each other eight times and have continued their rivalry into the coaches box with Jarrad now and assistant alongside John Longmire at the Swans and Mark an assistant to Leon Cameron.

“They’ve been destined to go in different paths,” Tony said.

“I’d love to see them on the same team one day but they’re two different people and have got their own ideas and ways. If it happens it happens.”

"We'd like to welcome both Terrigal-Avooca Panthers and Gosford Tigers to Adelaide St Oval for what will be a cracking day of football. Both our Cup sides will be aiming to make it four wins in a row. But to do that we'll have to overcome our arch rivals Terrigal-Avooca Panthers. Our Magoos in the Shield comp will try continue to get their season back on track when they face the slightly unknown Gosford Tigers.

Off the field, the new windows at the Hangar were a massive hit and we encourage everyone to head up and enjoy the panoramic views of the field. The annual Ping Pong Comp was also run and done last week with Brendan Lewis finally being crowned Champion! Much to the delight of the crowd Dan Carters was knocked out in the Semi Final.

We'd like to thank our partners for the 2020 season. Without their support we wouldn't be able to do what we love.

Today our first grade and ladies head to Adelaide Street for two great local derbies. All four sides have made promising starts to the year and both matches should be highly competitive. Our reserve grade make the long trip to Musswellbrook who are always hard to beat at home.

Last week we enjoyed three good wins against Nelson Bay, Lake Macquarie and Gosford. Reserves played well and bounced back from the loss a week earlier. The ladies made the trip to Medowie and played well to score a second win against the Marlins in as many matches. First grade played local rivals Gosford in a game with plenty of feeling. The boys played well enough to score a convincing victory.

Good luck to all teams this week and see you all at Breakers to celebrate!

Go Panthers.

Another tough day at the office for the women against top side Terrigal Avoca. Playing them for the second time in three weeks the improvement today was massive. Constant tackling, loud encouragement, players keeping their feet and remaining calm under pressure were the hall marks of a great Power Marlins display at Ferodale. We may not have got the points today, but we gained a great deal of self-belief. For a side that has been playing together for only 4 games each week the bonds get stronger and the improvement is obvious under Deano, Potts and Donny.

Best: Rhiannon Wares, Natasha Flint, Abbey Wilson, Jemma Astley, Sam Richards, Danielle McLeod

The Men's first game under new coach Birdy was played in gorgeous conditions at Dick Burwell oval against Maitland. Out to a strong start, the young team showed plenty of run and willingness to support their teammates to lead by 8 goals at half time. Switching off a little in the third quarter saw a 5-goal last quarter to run out 10 goal winner.

Goals: Billy Barton 3, Noah Connick 3, Kael Blackburne 3, Craig Bird 2, Aaron Crouch 2, Jayden Rymer 1, Chase Morrissey 1, Louis Dews 1

The Singleton Roosters will welcome back a host of talent this Saturday when playing host to Cardiff at Rose Point Park.

The line-up appeared on track to enter the clash with a 3-0 record when leading Newcastle City at the main break of last week's clash.

However, momentum would favour the home side at Newcastle's No 1 Sportsground.

Teenagers Daltyn McCartney and Isaac Barry were named in the best (in only their third and first senior games respectively) while playing coach Jed Ellis Cluff finished with two goals.

Earlier in the afternoon, Singleton veteran Marcus Rowe received the ultimate send off on when guiding the Roosters to a 27-point win over Maitland in the AFL Black Diamond Shield competition.

The Western Australian spearhead finished with a goal in what he claims will be his final on field contribution for the club.

MEANWHILE Singleton Roosterettes playing coach Nadene McBride admits she was just as surprised as her opponents with her side's commanding 32-point win over Newcastle City on Saturday.

“By Friday night they only had 15 available players.

Yet they still managed to keep the home side goalless.

“The tackles were how we won the footy,” McBride explained.

“Newcastle did not know how to get away from our hard-hitting girls.”

Once again, the club would like to thank all their sponsors and volunteers for their ongoing support

All three senior sides took on Warners Bay last Saturday, and what a finish in all games, with a rare draw in the Mens Cup game with Cardiff holding off a fast finishing Dogs side.

The last ten minutes were nerve wracking as the ball was camped in the Dogs' forward line. They peppered the goals and if not for inaccuracy could have snatched an unlikely victory. As the record shows, the final kick after the siren fell short of its mark, leaving the scores level, and players unsure of how to react.

Our Lady Hawks played out a thriller with a 1 point victory in the dying seconds. A very late goal to the Birds through the hard working Clare Cummings and our girls hit the front for the first time in the match. From the sidelines this was such a great game to watch and one of the best Cardiff team performances in many years.

Thank You

The Shield side finished very strongly to defeat the Dogs in an even team effort, but a few concerning injuries will test our depth in the weeks ahead. The team continues to unearth new talent and Dean Janson is exactly that, a talented sports person who in a few games is setting a high standard.

The seniors head up the highway to Singleton next week for a clash that will not only be a huge challenge on the park, but also a potentially season defining one on the ladder.

Our Women and Shield Men take on Maitland at Maitland at 10am and 12pm so if you are in the area please drop and support the teams.

Round four sees the men's and women's plate teams split for the first time this season with women taking on Singleton at Singleton while the men meet City at No.1.

Last week's forfeit against Gosford was a good opportunity for some of the less experienced players to get game time in the scratch match but now the Dockers take on Singleton again after a narrow loss in round one. The women's team will need a win to ensure they stay on track for a high finish on the table.

The Lake Macquarie men's team was bought back to earth with a thud last week when they came up against a much better Terrigal Avoca team. This week will be another hard encounter when they take on top of the table City. Coach Croft will be looking for a much better all-round performance and will be hoping to have a couple of key players back in the team.

In Round 3 our President, Rachel Robinson umpired her 100th career senior match the 53rd umpire to do so. Rachel started umpiring in 2015 was originally a Goal Umpire, who later accepted the challenge of Field Umpiring. Her umpiring tally includes 21 Black Diamond Cup matches, 7 as field umpire as well as 13 Plate matches.

Rachel currently is the only umpire who has officiated in 50 Black Diamond Cup Women's matches, something she achieved as a Field Umpire last season. She has officiated in the 2016 and 2017 Women's Grand Finals, as Goal Umpire and the 2018 Women's Grand Final as Emergency Umpire. Rachel also officiated in the 2019 Black Diamond Cup Women's Grand Final as a Field Umpire.

In 2017, Rachel was the winner of the Coaches Award, in 2018, she won the President's Award and in 2019, Rachel won the Club Person of the Year, which highlights the type of service she has given to the Association.

Round 3 saw one debutante in Black Diamond Cup, Goal Umpire Todd Harridge. Todd started goal umpiring to support his son, Cooper, who is a boundary umpire. Like several other parents before him, Todd chose to join 'em when he couldn't beat 'em. The NCCUA has become quite the family association in recent years with respected names like Nelly Biden, Rachel Robinson, Simon McCauley, all parents who became umpires because "they had to be at games and training with their kid anyway" and have forged their own successful niche in the group. Other parent/child umpire pairs – past & present - include Roy Reichert & Emily Brown, Darrel & Riley Luck, Adam, Bianca & Jake Lowe, Peter, Sophie, Kevin & Adrian Hoffman and the new generation - Stuart & Lachlan Chellis, Graeme & Scott Donnet, Simon & Luke Richens, Jodie & Christian Henderson.
