BOMBERS HOLD OFF “GRITTY” PANTHERS TO SOAR INTO BLACK DIAMOND CUP FIFTH ROUND IN EQUAL FIRST

Written by Isaac McIntyre, originally published in the Hunter Women’s Chronicle, 11 August

Four matches into the Black Diamond Cup’s 2020 season, and the Bombers are still flying high. Not just in the results, mind you; the whole Killarney Vale outfit are “loving being out on the park” after such a long preseason too, and it shows.

In the opening round, which started nearly three months later than planned, the Bombers felled Warners Bay 112–14. A week later, they edged the Hawks in a 110-point battle at Pasterfield Sporting Complex. Then they downed the Magpies by 83.

This week, Killarney Vale faced another tough battle. Terrigal Avoca has been building year on year in the south, and Bombers coach Peter Kelleher knew they’d be a “banana peel” in the fourth-round contest at Adelaide Street Oval.

“They’re a good side Terrigal, very hard at the footy and they play a very sophisticated style of AFL each and every week as well,” the Bombers helmsman told the Chronicle.

“The Panthers are certainly hard at the footy!” he added again with a laugh.

“No malice, of course, they’re well-coached and play well. Very gritty. They’re the emerging up and comers for sure, I think. Anything out of Terrigal is a quality unit. The ladies there have proved that right again, and I’m sure they’re only getting better.”

It was Kristen Kessler that took the game by the scruff in front of goals. For the second time in two weeks, Killarney Vale’s number 13 slotted home four majors, and guided the league leaders 8.13–61 to 2.1–13. Jocelyn Kelleher also shone in the clash.

The win makes it four on the trot for the Bombers since their defeat at the hands of City at the end of last season. That’s the game that’s still in the back of the team’s mind, Kelleher said. It’s the one that’s driving them towards perfection.

“All the girls have a fire in their belly from getting tumbled out in the preliminary final last year,” he stated. “It’s driven us, it’s always in the back of their minds. That said, we’re not letting that control us, of course. It’s just a bonus.”

BOMBERS HOLD OFF “GRITTY” PANTHERS TO SOAR INTO BLACK DIAMOND CUP FIFTH ROUND IN EQUAL FIRST

On top of their partial quest for revenge, there’s another thing driving the Bombers to their clinical victories: they want to “make every moment count.” The Central Coast lineup “love playing footy,” their coach said, and it was heartbreaking when the start was delayed. It could be cancelled at any moment too, and they know it.

“We could easily be put on hold again as soon as next week. We’re taking every game as it comes,” Kelleher said.

“The whole team is just enjoying their footy, and we all love winning. We want to get to the end, but we’re playing game by game.”

Also in the Black Diamond Cup Women’s fourth round, Cardiff disposed of Maitland 85–nil on the road to climb into third place in the league. The Hawks leapfrogged Terrigal Avoca, who remain in fourth ahead of the Magpies. Wyong Lakes earned their fourth-place spot with a 5.5–35 to 0.3–3 win against Warners Bay at Northlakes Oval. The Bulldogs have yet to chalk a win this year in three attempts.

Finally, defending champs Newcastle City retained their spot at the top of the AFL Hunter Central Coast first grade standings with a victory against the combined Nelson Bay/Port Stephens outfit at No.1 Sportsground on Saturday afternoon.

STANDINGS: Newcastle City, Killarney Vale (16), Cardiff (12), Terrigal Avoca, Wyong Lakes (8), Warners Bay, Maitland, Nelson Bay/Port Stephens (0).

It has been a week of great strides and encouraging progress at Tigerland this week with all at the club extremely pleased with our continuing forward movement in season 2020. After a very challenging first three rounds of football our black diamond cup senior men's team pulled through with a gutsy Round 4 victory against Maitland and their first for the year. Great numbers on the track and some huge efforts amongst our playing group paid off with a strong start leading into a controlled and composed performance resulting in a very satisfying win. Scott Manuelle snared a bag at full forward with our midfield division outstanding all day. Most mores I've are our swag of first year players who continue to perform well above their age and experience.

Our BD shield side were unable to back up their stunning round 2 win and were overcome by an experienced Killarney Vale side despite a terrific start and lead at quarter time. With Two byes in the first three rounds to start their season round 4 was always going to be a challenge and it is the waylaid start to their year more than the effort the team produced that impacted this result overall. This week will see the boys start their climb once again with a big show against Cardiff this week.

Our AFLW side continue to shine, earning their first points for the year. Sadly it was gained through forfeit however their form and progress in the past few weeks would have seen them take a victory before too long and our girls are confident that this weekend will be the one against Newcastle City.

Despite this being the Tigers second consecutive week of fixtures spread separately across the region for away fixtures the playing group and support base at Gosford Tigers AFC could not be any more united. We are embracing the challenges ahead and look forward to more fierce and bold leaps forward this weekend....Happy footy to all

Women's Round 4 Match Summary

Under grey skies and drizzling rain we took the field against last years premiers. As expected it was tough going, with a slow start from our women allowing City to get out to a comfortable lead at half time.

At each break Coach Deano emphasised the positives and encouraged everybody to never give in.

Jade's relentless tackling rubbed off on to Dani who nailed several City players who would've been sore the following day. Duckie revelled in the wet conditions and ran and ran, providing repeat efforts throughout the game. Rhi along with Jussie were tireless in the ruck against the City giant who wouldn't have looked out of place playing for the Opals. Tash, as always was the Rock of Gibraltar in defence repelling attack after attack.

With a strong third quarter, stifling City's running play, our women ran out the game strongly and enjoying themselves. Abbey went down with an extremely painful knee injury right on the final siren. We wish her a speedy recovery.

While the scoreboard didn't reflect our women's efforts, the bond between the players continues to get stronger and will surely lead to win in the near future.

Best: D McLeod, N Flint, S Roberts, J Keel, J Hourihan, E Kelly

Men's Round 4 Match Summary

Our men leapt out of the blocks to kick the first goal of the game and looked the stronger side for the first quarter leading by 3 points. Another excellent quarter had the Marlins up by 28 points at one stage before 2 late goals from City reduced the margin to a flattering 16 points.

Coach Bird encouraged his players to continue their hard work and not to become complacent. Unfortunately we came out flat and let City regain the ascendancy. Only down by 10 points, the game was ours if we wanted it. While we lifted and improved our entries into the forward line, our lack of fitness showed with City running out winners by 30 points.

While a disappointing result, there were many positives to take away from the game. Tough uncompromising defence lead by Toffa and Joel was outstanding. Jase Carey, with his usual complete disregard for his head, was inspirational when he went from one contest to the next winning plenty of the ball and dishing it out to his teammates. Jayden looked as classy and tough as ever kicking 3 goals.

In other highlights Billy earned jumper washing duties this week. How many 50's was it Bill? While Wayd Blackburne looked the goods sprinting away from his opponents, bouncing towards goal but unfortunately my view was blocked at the critical moment, so you'll have to ask him if his kick went through...

Goals: Jayden Rymer 3, B Barton 2, W Blackburne, J Carey, C Bird, J Overdijk, Jarryd Rymer, B Tebbutt

Singleton Rooster Cameron White celebrated his first win as senior captain last week against a fast finishing Cardiff 10.9 (69) to 10.5 (65).

Prior to the match, playing coach Jed Ellis Cluff and current captain Alex Mitchell announced the permanent leadership appointment to the surprise of the ball winner.

"It was good to get a nice tight win and a pretty even effort across the board really," White told The Hunter River Times.

"It was good to get a bogey off the back after losing a few in previous years (as acting captain).

"It (the appointment) also came as a surprise; I didn't know it was happening until they called me out before the game."

Mitchell, a winner of the Granland Medal in 2016, would guide the Roosters from a shaky 3-7 start to a preliminary final finish in his first season as captain in 2019.

He would also poll 11 Davey medal votes to combine for 31 with his coach Andrew Scott (who won the medal).

"I just made the call during the week and it was the right thing to do for the club," Mitchell explained.

"As much as I'd like to be captain of this footy club I can't come to training due to work commitments so this was the right thing to do."

Teenager Isaac Barry starred from start to finish this afternoon while Ellis Cluff also proved accurate in front of goal in what would go down as the AFL Hunter Central Coast's match of the round.

"His two clutch goals were inspirational," White concluded.

"Interestingly, he takes longer going for goal than Chis (previous coach Andrew Scott) does teeing off on the golf course."

The Roosters will now play Wyong Lakes across both grades while the Roosterettes will play host to Wallsend-West Newcastle following their three-point defeat to Lake Macquarie.

The BD Cup Men headed up the highway to Singleton last Saturday for a big clash that turned out to be a thriller with Singleton holding a defendable lead for most of the day. The Hawks started to play some good team footy in the second half but could not bridge the gap going down by 4 points.

In Maitland our Hawkettes and Ressie Men both had convincing wins and continue to consolidate their dominant ladder positions, with Ressies sitting atop the Shield Ladder.

In a huge day for the Martini family last Saturday talented juniors Beth and Tim were selected to play in their respective Women's and Men's First Grade teams. Beth and Tim were both outstanding on the day and it displays the great talent come up through our junior ranks.

Today we see our toughest assignments in BD Cup Womens and Men's as we take on Terrigal, the league benchmark, in both grades. It will be a stern test but the Hawks are up for the challenge and ready to go welcoming back some key players in both teams.

Thank You

Both Dockers teams are off to Bateau Bay this Saturday for two vital games. In the men's The Entrance Bateau Bay and the Dockers sit on two wins each so this week's game even before the halfway mark of the season could be vital in the makeup of the four. In the women's both teams have three wins, but Bateau Bay have a game in hand. The Lake Macquarie women will be looking for a win to try to cement a top two position.

Last week the Dockers men were down on numbers and came up against top of the table City. After a very ordinary first quarter the boys put in a solid performance, broke even in the second and played the game out strongly.

The Lake Macquarie women exacted revenge for their first-round loss to Singleton and now sit in third spot on the ladder by a narrow percentage to Singleton. The Dockers went into the last quarter with a two-goal lead but managed to hang on for a five-point win.

Do not forget to get back to the Toronto Hotel for a drink or meal after the game

AFL Hunter Central Coast Board have accepted the withdrawal of the Muswellbrook Cats Black Diamond Plate Men's and Women's teams effective from the conclusion of Round 5 (Men's Plate game vs. Wallsend in Round 5 will be deemed as a forfeit). The decision of the Muswellbrook club was based on several factors, the league and Board will work closely with the Muswellbrook club ahead of the 2021 season.

Players from the Muswellbrook club who are seeking to continue playing in 2020 will be able to apply for Type 2 COVID permits to allow movement to clubs (within the HCC only) for the remainder of the 2020 season.

Black Diamond Plate Men's and Women's Fixtures:

Due to the withdrawal of Muswellbrook the league will be required to redo the fixture from Round 6 onwards for both competitions. The revised fixtures will be provided to clubs by Wednesday August 19.

Match Ratio – Ladders:

A reminder any competitions with uneven fixtured games for teams will have ladders move to match ratio.
