SIR DOUG

NICHOLLS ROUND

Sir Doug Nicholls Round is being celebrated at community football grounds across NSW and the ACT on a scale never seen before.

More than 30 clubs and their opponents across NSW and the ACT will formally recognise the culture and contribution Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people have on our great game. The elite AFL competition celebrates Sir Doug Nicholls Round across rounds 11 and 12, with AFL HCC clubs celebrating across multiple upcoming weekends.

Many clubs in NSW and the ACT will wear special commemorative guernseys designed by Indigenous players or community members to mark the round. Smoking ceremonies and acknowledgments of country will also be held across local matches in junior and senior ranks along with cultural dance lessons, face painting and education seminars.

Head of AFL NSW/ACT, Tiffany Robertson, said Sir Doug Nicholls Round serves as important recognition of Indigenous people's impact on our game. "I am so proud this annual celebration of Indigenous culture in AFL is widely acknowledged across community clubs in NSW and the ACT," Ms Robertson said. "NSW is home to the largest Indigenous population in Australia, and this round helps us all reflect on the rich culture and contribution Indigenous players bring to our game.

"The round also serves as a reminder to the tens of thousands of footballers in this region who play on lands of deep cultural significance and history. Indigenous Australians own the world's oldest living culture and we must always respect the custodians of the grounds we play on week in week out."

SIR DOUG

NICHOLLS ROUND

AFL NSW/ACT Indigenous Ambassadors, Jeremy Finlayson and James Bell are both looking forward to the round and are pleased that it extends to community footy's grassroots.

“My Aboriginal heritage is from the south coast of NSW all the way up to Kempsey and the Bellbrook area. It’s great to see so many community clubs getting around Sir Doug Nicholls Round and celebrating the contribution Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island players have on the game.” Bell said.

“When I think of Sir Doug Nicholls Round, I genuinely get goose-bumps. This year is even more exciting as I found out from my Dad’s cousin that I am related to Sir Doug, so the round has a greater significance.” Finlayson said.

The below briefly outlines how the HCC community are celebrating Sir Doug Nicholls Round in 2021. It’s great to see our community get behind the round and what it signifies.

REPRESENTATIVE

FOOTBALL - 22 MAY

The AFL HCC Men's and Women's Squads, as well as a contingent of Umpires, all traveled down to the South Coast on Saturday 22 May.

In what was an unexpectedly warm day, the Women's game started at 12:40pm, and the Men's at 2:30pm.

Women's Game

The South Coast team with some major improvement on their 2019 campaign in the Hunter, kept the HCC team busy in the quarter. HCC team had kept the South Coast women goalless in the Second and third quarters. At three quarter time, HCC were up by two goals, their fitness and skill shone through in the last quarter as they ran away with the win:

AFL South Coast: 3.4-22

AFL HCC: 5.6-36

Goals to A Jones (2), M MacDonald, K Kessler and T Gregory. Best of ground for HCC was Kate Booth.

Men's Game

A slow start by HCC meant the South Coast pulled away early to have a three goal lead at the end of the first quarter. HCC worked hard keeping the South Coast to only one goal in the second, and they piled on 5 goals to go into half time in front by seven points. With only one goal scored in the third quarter, by the South Coast, at three quarter time there was only 3 points in it. Two early goals by HCC put them in a great position, but a haul of goals late in the last, saw South Coast come out on top:

AFL South Coast: 12.9-81

AFL HCC: 7.6-48

Goals to H Pitt (3), M Crawford (2), L Flack and E Bradbury. Best of ground for HCC was Aaron Duncan.

2021 Sir Doug Nicholls Round

The NCCUA is pleased to be participating in the Sir Doug Nicholls Round this year. We will be wearing a very special NCCUA Shirt designed by our very own David Parsons!

Sir Doug Nicholls Round provides an opportunity to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, culture and history and the invaluable contributions Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have made to AFL.

The following is a very special story behind Dave's magnificent artwork:

"This artwork depicts what I see what umpiring has done for me over the past 11 seasons as an umpire and the past 19 years while involved with football.

The artwork depicts three people which I see as a boundary umpire, a goal umpire and lastly a field umpire. Without these people we are unable to start the beautiful game of football. The depiction of the umpires show white lines on each of them, I see this as the history of umpiring with the old white uniforms as well as the growth that each umpire gets from every single game.

The line connecting all three umpires is the tracks of the serpent that created the hills and the rivers but also creates the fields that we play this beautiful sport on.

The lighter green lines in the background show the different land and country that we play football on every weekend. It depicts the hills and valleys that we travel through and over to watch the bounce at the start of the game.

The three gum leaves represent the change of season and how different the countries are in the Hunter Central Coast AFL."

Keep an eye out for this great shirt over the next two weeks and maybe even in the future.

KILLARNEY VALE

BOMBERS

After what seems like an eternity our senior teams are all back on home turf today with all teams coming up against Warners Bay.

Our Men and Women Cup teams will be looking to bounce back with a win after sustaining losses against Terrigal Avoca a couple of weeks ago.

Coach Shackleton will be looking for a strong response from his troops especially with their discipline on field. A win here can solidify the teams place in the top 4 and go a long way to securing a finals spot.

The Women are also looking to respond strongly after a last up loss to the Panthers. The Ladies will have a few players return from injury this Saturday which will help strengthen the team and give them the best chance to get back on the winners list.

Our Shield team face the equal second place Bulldogs side who will be looking for some revenge after last years finals. In what is a vastly different looking team with plenty of new faces the boys know that spots are on the line in every match. Winning the midfield battle here will go a long way to wing the game overall.

Finally we'd like to congratulate our Representative Players and staff from last weeks Rep Games. Women's Coach Peter Kelleher and his side consisting of Ash Page, Taylah Conabie, Kristen Kessler, Ange Jones as well as Rhys Dawe as Runner and Mick Smith as assistant got the win over the South Coast girls. Our Men's Rep Players including Brandon Lloyd, Luke Flack, Jye Bobby and Aaron Duncan. All should be proud of their efforts as we are. But a special mention to Aaron Duncan who was named BOG for the HCC! Reports from Wollongong are that due to severe leather poisoning Aaron was unfortunately unable to enjoy the nights festivities that Rep trips offer.

Killarney Vale AFC would like to thank the following sponsors for their support in 2021 and we're excited to have you being apart of the Bombers.

BLUES

LAKE MACQUARIE

DOCKERS

After the weeks break for the representative round the two Lake Macquarie teams are split this week with women taking on Maitland in Maitland and the men with another tough game against The Entrance Bateau Bay.

Last time the Dockers played Maitland in round 5 the women had a strong 13 goal win. Coach Janissen will be eager to get several players back in after the disheartening last round loss to city. Also back this week is Breanna Trappett from interstate

The Lake Macquarie men also suffered a big loss to City last round and were only competitive for the first quarter. Bateau have had some big wins this season and the Dockers will need to play their best footy to match the blues. Like the women's coach Steve Renehan will be keen to get a few of the players who were missing from last round back into the team.

MUSWELLBROOK

CATS

This weekend's games see the Cats hosting Wallsend-West Newcastle at home in a very special Charity Round. The Muswellbrook Cats love to get behind various local and national charities in an attempt to do our bit for our community and the people residing within it. This weekend we will be wearing specialty jerseys which will be auctioned off at the Muswellbrook Hotel following our plate games to raise money for Cystic Fibrosis Community Care.

Cystic Fibrosis Community Care provides support, advocacy and information to the CF community, promotes awareness of CF, and funds medical research into the fight against CF. We have chosen to support CFCC in honour of the Heard family.

A big thank you to Bengalla Mining Company and Sedgman for their jersey sponsorship which will allow us to donate 100% of funds raised at auction directly to CFCC.

Women's Player to Watch Round 7: Summer Burnett – this girl has come up from a number of years playing in the juniors. She lives and breathes footy and has a knack of always being in the right place at the right time, and was rewarded with a goal for her efforts last week.

Men's Player to Watch Round 7: Dominic White – Dom is off to a flying start, being considered amongst the best on ground for all 5 matches played so far, he can ruck, he can kick goals, he'll be sure to have an impact on the game this weekend.
