WELCOME

Welcome to Season 2022, after a very interrupted 2021, we are very much looking forward to getting footy on the park for 2022.

Unfortunately the weather gods haven't been kind and have caused the closure of a lot of grounds.

The League would like to thank all the players, club volunteers and umpires for signing back up in 2022. We know the last two seasons have been hard for everyone, so we appreciate the commitment you have shown to your club, and we really hope you all can get to enjoy what we hope could be a full season. Due to the weather over the last 4-6 weeks, we understand that both players and umpires haven't been able to get as much training under the belt as you all would like, let's hope the weather improves soon!

We would like to also extend out thanks to our partners for their support this year: S Trend, Belmont 16s and Hit1013 Central Coast.

Welcome back, one and all, to Season 2022 which has already thrown a few challenges our way and perhaps given a sign of things to come. New President, Hugh Matheson, has hit the ground running (as he usually does) and is barking instructions like the sergeant-major he is. And a good thing too because Covid has already reared its head with cancelled trials, missing personnel and changes all over. We welcome back Benny and Spriggysy as senior coaches and Pete Weise into his first gig with the mighty Ressies.

This year we welcome Sasha Gratton to the club as coach of the Women's team. Sasha has come up from Sydney with a long history in AFL and will provide great guidance to those under her wing. The ladies have some challenges ahead with a rebuild underway but it is a very enthusiastic group that will represent us this year and we can't wait to see them play.

Two intra-club trials and a successful hit out against Wyong sees the men ready for the season ahead. Wet weather footy seems to be the theme so hopefully we'll be able to get stuck in sooner rather than later with all the councils and start to enjoy our footy again.

We also welcome the Bradford Hotel back as our major sponsor for 2022. They have been a great support for us and provide the financial breathing room we need to build our club. Don't forget to give back to them and support their business each Thursday and Saturday especially.

I, for one, cannot wait to get back into things. The first bump, the first kick, the first interchange after blowing up after three minutes... savour it all. We know how valuable these days are. Go Saints!

SINGLETON

ROOSTERS

A warm welcome to all Singleton Roosters' returning players, officials and supporters to the 2022 AFL Hunter Central Coast.

This year we will continue to compete in the AFL Black Diamond Men's Cup while our women's side have also been promoted from the Plate to Cup competition.

Last season, the men's side held a 6-6 record before the season was cancelled due to the second wave of coronavirus in August.

This brought our playing coach Jed Ellis-Cluff's winning record to 16-10, we thank him for his two seasons of service.

In November, he passed the torch to former Rooster Neil Barton and we wish him all the best on his second chapter at the club.

Senior president Nadene McBride will once again take charge of the women's side.

After a memorable 2020 Women's Black Diamond Plate premiership, the line-up captured a 9-2 record last year. We wish them all the best in this year's Cup competition.

Recently, the club retained the Nathan 'Sadge' Duncan Memorial Shield.

The Roosterettes, who welcomed first year recruits Kustiani Tuckerman, Brittany Everleigh and Aimee Rapson, celebrated a nine-point victory over Muswellbrook at Weeraman Field.

The Muswellbrook Cats then unleashed their new recruits Liam Cullen and Dylan Norton in the men's clash to hold a tight lead over the Roosters. However late goals to Daltyn McCartney, in his first match since his injury in 2020, and Alex Mitchell ensured a nail-biting three-point victory.

BLUES

Newcastle City Blues players are itching to get back onto the field after a long period of time away from the game due to another Covid interrupted 2021 season. This year we have a strong contingent of female players returning and will again field teams in the Women's Cup and Women's Plate divisions. Our Men's squad is continuing to build on numbers and will again field three teams, one in each division.

Our coaching staff have worked hard to provide players with a quality pre-season however like most clubs, rain has dampened many sessions throughout February and March. We thank our new sponsors Hunter Fitness and F45 Charlestown for providing indoor training venues for the male and female players for some continuation in pre-season training.

We continue to be supported by our long term sponsors The Commonwealth Hotel and Back In Motion Physiotherapy and look forward to celebrating all of our sponsors later in the year at our annual Sponsors Day when we return to our recently redeveloped premier venue Number One Sportsground later this season.

Finally, to all of our players taking the field this Saturday, best of luck, wear the navy blue with pride and enjoy the first game of footy for season 2022.

LAKE MACQUARIE

DOCKERS

Welcome to Tulkaba Oval for the start of the 2022 season for our games against Terrigal Avoca. Let's hope we get a full season of good hard football and get to play a finals series this year.

The Dockers men have been training hard and have had good numbers. New coach Tyler Chisholm has welcomed back a good number of the familiar faces but has rounded up a few new recruits as well. The men have played two trial games against Nelson Bay and Killarney Vale with the coach happy with what has seen in those games. Terrigal are always a strong club so the Dockers will need to be at their best to challenge the panthers.

The Lake Macquarie women have dropped back from Cup this season but even though they have lost some players are keen to return to the finals. Coach John Janissen is back on deck for another season and has watched training numbers gradually increase during the preseason. The dockers will field a young team this year but will look to the experience of Emma-Jayne Howe, Sheldon Janissen and Tahlia Thompson to guide them through the season. With so many changes again, it may take a while to start to gel but let's hope they put up a strong first up showing.

Make sure you get up to the Great Northern Hotel who have just come on board as a new sponsor to discuss all the big plays after the game.

WALSSEND WEST NEWCASTLE SWANS

Women's

The Wallsend West-Newcastle women's team are off to a solid start in 2022. After two years of COVID-19 impacting numbers, the Swans are coming into the season with big numbers, and still growing each week. This year the women's team will be coached by Monique Maddelana. Mon's extensive experience, passion and knowledge will be an asset to the club and a strength to the team. Kade Booth will resume role as team Captain, with experienced young gun Grace Hamilton taking on the Vice-Captain role. Grace has come from the Junior ranks of the Swans and has become a key player and leader in the Senior team.

The Swans have had a strong retention rate, with valuable players returning for 2022 and bringing experience to the team. Alongside these players comes an array of new talent, with many coming from other Australian Rules clubs and various codes, who are already proving to strengthen the squad. Determination alongside inclusivity is at the forefront of the team's values.

The women's Swans side will continue with the momentum that they built upon last year, and will be strong competitors in the league in 2022.

Men's

Welcome back. It has been a weather interrupted pre-season for the Swans with the home ground living up to its name of the pond. Despite this we have still managed to get some decent numbers on the track and get some solid work done.

New coaches Chris Pedler and Hayden Taylor are excited about the year ahead with some new faces turning up as well as plenty of returning players. Let's hope we can get a "normal" season in with no distractions.

Wishing everyone a safe and injury free season. See you out there!
