REP FOOTY:

What a 'long' weekend of footy it was last week. We would like to congratulate all players, coaches and officials who were lucky enough to represent their respective rep teams in both the Junior Challenge Cup and Women's Rep Challenge.

We must acknowledge and thank the umpires that were involved in the many matches across three long days it was great to see the green team out and doing their thing across three very long days of footy.

MILESTONES:

This week the NCCUA wishes to acknowledge the milestones of two members of the Committee.

The first, after being unavailable last round, Jessica Barnes officiates in her 50th AFLHCC Match as a Field Umpire. Having joined the NCCUA a number of years ago as a Goal Umpire and made the transition to Field. Jess also happens to be a Committee Member and Central Coast Junior Field Umpire Coach. Congrats on this Milestone Jess and thank you for your dedication to coaching our junior umpires.

The second person achieving a personal milestone this week is NCCUA Life Member Peter 'Boof' Hoffman. Boof has had interrupted service with the NCCUA due to Defence Service and a premature retirement from Umpiring. Despite his retirement Boof has been seen around the traps at Junior Football and at key NCCUA Functions over the years and made his triumphant return to umpiring this year as well as rejoining the NCCUA Committee. This week Boof achieves the personal milestone of 150 NCCUA/AFLHCC Matches. This milestone match will be the Wallsend West Newcastle v Lake Macquarie women's match. Congratulations on this milestone Boof and thanks for your continued service to the NCCUA.

NCCUA TRIVIA NIGHT:

The NCCUA's Annual Trivia Night will return this year at our sponsor Wallsend Diggers in the Auditorium on Saturday 30th July. (Please note that this is a date change to the previous announcements.

We will have raffle prizes, table prize for trivia.

Everyone is encouraged to arrive early to order dinner from the bistro.

More details to come closer to the date.

A big weekend of footy coming up for Saints fans with our first full home game for the season with all teams finally on Max McMahon. A bit of a change around with the Women's team taking on Terrigal Avoca at 10am before the Ressies and Ones take on Warners Bay at 12pm and 2pm respectively. With the Saints and Sinners have their first outing for the year and our Auskickers up for a kick, it should be a cracking day of footy all round.

I remember back in 92 I was sitting on the hill at Uranquinty have a nice cold Coke Classic for a social club function when the centre half forward went down in spectacular style, losing a leg in an off the ball incident and the call went out for a replacement. Forgoing a warmup and risking injury to assist the team, I was persuaded to roll my jean legs up and play in my Blundstones. The Blundstones made agility a challenge and in the end I just took them off and played in my socks and still managed to dob eight after half time. I then joined my fellow social club members back on the hill with nary a sweat up and the festivities continued late into the night.

We can only hope for similar this weekend although I am hoping the jeans won't have to be rolled up again. Get around each other, boys and girls, Saints and Sinners, and go the Saints!

ROOSTERS

A talented group of six Singleton Roosterettes represented the Hunter side on Monday.

Singleton's Kyah McBride was selected as co-captain for the side, which played two games at the AFL Hunter Central Coast Women's Challenge Cup, alongside Cardiff defender Jessica Bannerman. The inspirational skipper was joined by fellow Roosterettes Sophie Breeze, Neisha Macpherson, Nikki Robson, Kustiani Tuckerman and Brittany Eveleigh.

The line-up was coached by Singleton's Nadene McBride with assistance from Alex Tigani (forward line), Daltyn McCartney (runner) and Cardiff's Liam Gibson (back line).

"We were syncing more and more as the games went on," McBride explained.

"Today was a massive win for the Hunter as we were competitive. Each member of the team helped keep Women's Footy alive & kicking in our region."

LAKE MACQUARIE

DOCKERS

Lake Macquarie welcomes the Wallsend Swans to Tulkaba Park for this week's round of football. With the weather clearing, it will be great to see some dry-weather football on display. After a bye weekend it will be good to start the back-end of the season. The girls have a strong challenge against a team that has already claimed a couple of big scalps this season. The Dockers can expect one of their toughest games of the year. Special mention to all the ladies that played in the rep triangle series on the weekend, and to Lauren and coaches in keeping the game at a higher profile. Good job!

The men's team has been ravaged by injuries in the last month but Coach Chiz is excited to see some busted players on their way back to the park. The next month sees the boys setting up for a positive return to some form with players available only making squads stronger. Great to see 17 Coach Aaron and Senior Coach Tyler bringing 17s into senior training which can only help with the growth for the future.

Let's go Dockers!
