SINGLETON

ROOSTERS

The Singleton Roosters would like to welcome all players, umpires and supporters to Rose Point Park this afternoon for our senior matches against the Cardiff Hawks.

Our senior men's side recently celebrated a memorable 12.12 (84) to 6.9 (45) win over Maitland.

The victory made for the ultimate birthday present for our men's coach Neil Barton.

After a tough defeat to Newcastle City, we welcome back some big names to our line-up this weekend.

Our women's side will also hope to return to the winners' list earlier in the day.

It will be the first time our women's stars Kyah McBride, Nikki Robson, Kustiani Tuckerman, Britt Eveleigh, Sophie Breeze and Neisha MacPherson will play off against their representative teammates for the first time since the Women's Challenge Cup.

Playing coach Nadene McBride has revealed that many of her players have showed vast improvement since the tournament.

Finally, we wish our club juniors all the best in their matches throughout Sunday morning.

We hope to see them transition into our senior program in the coming years.

NEWCASTLE CITY

BLUES

After the long weekend break, we had some mixed results.

Our Men's and Women's Cup teams had strong wins against Singleton up at Rose Point Park. Our Women's Plate and Men's Shield teams also came away with victories over Bateau Bay, while our Men's Plate went down to Bateau Bay.

This week we have our Men's Plate team traveling to play Wyong, Men's Shield playing Muswellbrook, Women's Cup against Wyong and Women's Plate playing Gosford, with our Men's Cup team having the week off.

We would like to give a big thank you to all the individuals who helped out in volunteer roles this past week gone, with an extra shoutout to the number of players who backed up and played two games.

Enjoy your weekend at the footy,
Go City!

LAKE MACQUARIE DOCKERS

Welcome to Round 11 at Tulkaba Park where the Dockers welcome the Bombers to Teralba for the first time this year.

The ladies are happy to build on their grinding win against the resilient Swannies after last week's round and the playing group are excited to be replaying some of their round one opponents.

With the skills improving each week, we are hoping to hit the ground running.

After missing a game last week, the men are certainly keen to get back on the park as they look forward to the challenge ahead this week.

Special thanks, as always to the team at the Great Northern Hotel, Teralba who not only provide integral support and sponsorship, but always make the Dockers, their families and friends welcome in a terrific 'home-pub' atmosphere.

Good luck everybody...go the Dockers!
