MILESTONE ALERT

Over the last few weeks the NCCUA has seen many umpires achieve milestones.

AMELIA LUCK

A couple of weeks ago Amelia Luck umpired her 200th Match total. This includes 78 matches as a Boundary Umpire, 63 matches as a Goal Umpire and 59 matches as a Field Umpire. Congrats Amelia!

JANELLE BIDEN

Earlier in the season Nelly umpired her 50th Black Diamond Cup - Men's match as a Goal Umpire and just recently umpired her 100th match total. This includes a few games as a Field Umpire on top of her experience as a Goal Umpire. Congratulations on this milestone Nelly!

WILL CHELLIS

Last week saw the third Chellis, young Will, making his Black Diamond Cup - Men's debut as a Boundary Umpire. We congratulate Will on this debut and hope he enjoyed the experience of doing this with his father Stuart and coach Simon McCauley.

This week the NCCUA will see three more umpires add to this list of milestones.

KYAN EVERSON

This week Kyan Everson will umpire his 50th Black Diamond Cup match (total). In a bright and promising career so far it is great to see Kyan achieve 50 Black Diamond Cup - Men's matches and we can't wait to celebrate the next milestone.

RYAN STANTON

This week also sees Ryan Stanton, aka Prime Possum, achieve the milestone of 100 Black Diamond Cup - Men's matches. Congratulations on this milestone Ryan.

Last week we were spread far and wide with games at Cardiff, Nelson Bay and Muswellbrook and, while it did take a toll on numbers, it didn't affect the effort and desire we are working towards week by week. The ladies played a cracker against Cardiff, keeping them to three goals and getting one back themselves with Sascha putting through her first. The Ressies battled it out with very low numbers and some assistance from the Cats with Conor dobbing his first ever. And the Ones fought it out with two old men making up the twenty on the field and, whilst going down by a few, gave a good account of themselves. The GPS trackers has provided a lot of interest this year with totals getting up around the 14km and efforts being dominated by the president but I can't help thinking it might be good to drop one on Cuz to see how far that big bum gets from the centre circle or Pete to see how fast those old, bugged legs are carrying him or Bowlo to see if his game running matches the obviously fabricated statistics he is dropping into the team chats. Kev still wants one implanted to see if his output through a whole week matches the game output of some of these young show-offs with their fancy working legs.

Speaking of Kev, he notched up his 100th game (and year) after overcoming a series of season ending injuries week after week and year after year to hit the triple figures. He is far too humble to mention the milestone and but did supply a dossier of achievements he copied over from his personal application to the Australian Hall of Fame but, even though the Google servers are “limitless”, there is a limit to the amount of rubbish I am able to insert into these reports so we will leave much of his career in the realm of legend and beer. Tickets are selling fast to Kev’s testimonial though (I bought one and also bought one for my mum – she’s a fan) so if four hours of him talking about himself is your cup of tea, the Newcastle Entertainment Centre only holds so many people – get in fast!

Anyway, enough about the man, the myth, the legend there are others and they are playing this weekend! The lads are at Warners Bay and the Ladies are at home and we will all be back at the Bradford in the evening where tales of our skills and dash will abound. Get around each other and go the Saints!
