Well we've made it to Round 18, that means the end of the Home & Away season in seniors and the commencement of full finals rounds in juniors.

We need to begin by thanking everyone that has made season 2022 happen from the AFLHCC Board and AFL NSW/ACT staff, the players, club officials, volunteers, parents and family. Of course as the Umpires Association we need to pay a special thank you to everyone that pulled on a green shirt to umpire a game this season, whether it was as an NCCUA Umpire, league appointed umpire or a 'clubbie' you too have all made this season happen so thank you.

Last week we saw Joseph Plumridge make his Black Diamond Cup - Men's Debut as a Field Umpire at Adelaide St when Killarney Vale went up against Singleton. This week we see two more umpires make their Black Diamond Cup - Men's Debut. The first is Field Umpire Jonathon Price who will walk out to officiate the Killarney Vale versus Maitland match while the second is Christle Erodias who will Goal Umpire the Terrigal-Avoca versus Cardiff match up at Hylton Moore.

So a massive congratulations to these three umpires on the achievements of making their Black Diamond Cup - Men's debuts at the tail end of season 2022.

As we approach finals we would like to wish all clubs competing in finals luck and the same for our umpires who are also eyeing off a spot for that magical 'one day in September!'
