WARNING SIRENS – FOR BOTH JUNIOR AND SENIOR AGE GROUPS

Timekeepers are to sound the siren as an indicator to players and officials as follows:

- As umpires enter the playing field prior to the start of the game and start of the third quarter Once
- Five minutes prior to scheduled starting time of the match and third quarter Once
- Two minutes prior to scheduled starting time of all quarters Twice
- One minute prior to scheduled starting time of all quarters Once
- Scheduled starting time of all quarters Once

TIME ON – FOR BOTH JUNIOR AND SENIOR AGE GROUPS

The clock is only to be stopped in the following circumstances:

- In the event of a Player being replaced under the blood rule, timekeepers are to stop the clock from the time that the blood rule signal is given by the field Umpire until the field Umpire signals time back on or the ball is clearly in play.
- In case of a Player being replaced using a stretcher, the field Umpire shall signal time off as outlined in Note 1 below.
- In other cases where the field Umpire believes there will be a significant delay in play, the field Umpire shall signal time off as outlined in Note 1 below

Note 1: To indicate the commencement of the time added period, the field Umpire shall blow his/her whistle and raise one arm above his/her head. To indicate that the time added period as elapsed, the field Umpire shall raise one arm above the head.

RECORDING OF SEND OFFS

When a player is sent from the field timekeepers are required to:

- Acknowledge the send off by showing the appropriate yellow or red card to the umpire;
- Record details of the send off (i.e player no, card colour, time of send off);
- All send offs in Senior age groups are for a flat period of fifteen (15) minutes, excluding intervals between quarters or when time off is called for the stretcher or blood rule. Junior age groups, the player is unable to be replaced for a total period equivalent to one quarter of the match in consecutive playing minutes, excluding breaks between quarters only.
- Players who receive a yellow card can be replaced immediately;
- Players who receive a red card can take NO further part in the game, but can be replaced after a flat period of fifteen (15) minutes, excluding intervals between quarters or when time off is called for the stretcher or blood rule (senior age groups). Junior age groups, the player is unable to be replaced for a total period equivalent to one quarter of the match in consecutive playing minutes, excluding breaks between quarters only.
- Timekeepers are the sole judges for when players sent from the ground can return or be replaced, whichever is applicable;
- It is the offending players club's responsibility to obtain the all clear from the timekeepers for such players to resume playing.
